SANTA ROSA, CA – Opening on August 18, 2017, the Wine Country Arts Council presents ‘Laughing Matters’ featuring art that makes us smile, chuckle, or burst into laughter. Artist submittals for this show include visual and literary artworks consisting of paintings, illustrations, sculptures, fiber artworks, poetry, short stories, original comics and more. All works are by Sonoma County artists.

The show’s location, The Studio Gallery, is two doors down from the entrance to the 6th Street Playhouse and shares the Playhouse parking space. Since 2016, The Wine Country Arts Council and the 6th Street Playhouse have collaborated to bring art to the Studio Gallery space. The ‘Laughing Matters’ exhibition coincides with the 6th Street Playhouse presentation of ‘You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown’, set to open on August 18th. <http://bit.ly/2s4umDH>

Sonoma County artists may submit ‘Laughing Matters’ entries for consideration by the jurors by going to the Wine Country Arts Council link, Call to Artists “Laughing Matters”, no later than August 6, 2017. <https://www.winecountryartscouncil.com/call-to-artists-lm/>
