BIG RIVER THE ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN

PRODUCER: 6th Street Playhouse School of Drama presents -

WHAT: "Big River: The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn"

Music and lyrics by Roger Miller, Book by William Hauptman
Based on the novel by Mark Twain

Framed by a theatrical and musical celebration of Americana, this Tony award-winning musical follows the adventures of Huck Finn and his friend Jim as they search for the promise of freedom along the Mississippi River.

Based on the classic novel by Mark Twain, this youth summer musical theater production recalls "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," with music and lyrics by Roger Miller and book by William Hauptman.

This production of "Big River" marks the first time that the 6th Street Playhouse School of Drama has presented a stand-alone youth summer musical theater production. Students have received training in acting, dance and music during a month-long rehearsal and training program, which culminates in this production featuring live music, musical direction and professionally designed sets, lighting and costumes.
