

CABARET

PRODUCER: 6th Street Playhouse proudly presents

WHAT: "Cabaret"

Book by Joe Masterhoff

Music by John Kander / Lyrics by Fred Ebb

Leave your troubles outside..."Cabaret," is set in Berlin at the end of the Jazz Age, just before Hitler's rise to power in Germany. One escape from reality is at the decadent Kit Kat Klub cabaret. The Tony award-winning musical cleverly reflects political and social turbulence as it follows an idealistic American writer, Clifford Bradshaw and the Kit Kat Klub's irrepressible performer, Sally Bowles - out of the club and into the reality of 1930s Berlin.

For mature audiences.

Directed by David Lear
